COURT LENIENT WITH AUTO THIEF

Judge Megee Withholds Sentence of Russell Borden When he Enters Plea of Guilty Today.

FATHER APPEARS IN COURT

First Mis-Step by Youth Will Result in Sentence to Reformatory —Stole Spillman's Machine.

Russell Borden, the Reedville youth, who stole the automobile owned by James Spillman of Milroy, and who was captured in Greenfield in a sensational manner, was arraigned before Judge Megee this morning and entered a plea of guilty to the charge of grand larceny. Judge Megee was prompted to be lenient with the boy and with held sentence pending his good behavior. The boy asked the court for mercy and appeared in the presence of Judge Megee with his aged father, Nicholas Borden. The father told the court that his daughter was almost dead with tuberculosis and for her sake asked Judge Megee not to send the boy to prison. Judge Megee has an understanding with the boy that the first time he makes a bad move he will be sentenced to the reformatory at Jeffersonville.

Young Borden was bound over to the grand jury from Mayor Bebout's court. The grand jury returned an indictment against him Thursday afternoon. Borden is nineteen years old. It will be recalled that Borden took the machine owned by James Spillman from in front of the court house on the final day of the horse show and fall festival. He got as far as Greenfield before he was captured. Borden admitted that he did wrong and asked for another chance. Judge Megee disliked to send a young man to prison and decided to give him a chance.

In the claim of Jessie L. Alexander against the estate of Leander Veatch, deceased, the court appointed John H. Kiplinger and B. F. Miller to defend the estate. Mrs. Alexander asks $6,593. She is the administratrix of the estate.

The case of Francis McCoy against the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis railway for damages, demanding $100, was dismissed by the plaintiff and the costs paid. A written dismissal was filed.

The defendant in the suit of Edward A. Frazee against the National Land Company filed a motion for a change of venue. The motion has not been heard by the court.

DECLARED BEST MEETING HELD YET

Parent-Teachers Association of Grades Discusses Music From Various Angles.

NEXT ONE ON LITERATURE

The November meeting of the Parent-teachers association of the grades, held yesterday afternoon at the Graham high school assembly room, was declared to be the best ever held by the organization. The subjects were all handled intelligently by the speakers and revealed a great amount of study on the general topic of music, which was the subject for the afternoon. The next monthly meeting will be held December 4 and the subject will be literature.

Mrs. Will Meredith read a paper on "The Value of Music." It was a very strong presentation of the topic. Miss Helen Scott talked on "Music in the Schools," explaining just what is taught in the various grades and high school. Mrs. E. L. Wooden's subject was, "The Kind of Music Heard in the Homes and on the Streets." Miss Edith Caldwell spoke on "The Value of Music to Quiet Children." Mrs. Dan Matlock on "Sacred Music in the Home," and Mrs. J. H. Scholl on "Value to Pupils Taking Piano Lessons."

"MAKES GOOD" AS CARTOONIST

Cyrus C. Hungerford, a Rush County Boy, is Creator of Snoodles,

SON OF ADDISON HUNGERFORD

Snoodles, Originated in Pittsburg, is Setting the Whole World to Smiling Every Week.

Cyrus C. Hungerford, a Rush county boy, has made "good" as a cartoonist on the Pittsburgh Sun and the Pittsburgh Sunday Post. Hungerford is the creator of a series of pictures depicting a kid he calls Snoodles. Snoodles is known in every household in Pittsburgh and it was through this work that Hungerford has become famous.

Hungerford was born and reared in Walker township and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Addison Hungerford. His father is known to many here as "Codge" Hungerford. Cyrus Hungerford is a young man and has frequently visited relatives here since he has lived in Pittsburgh. When a boy he showed a talent for drawing and today is considered one of the best cartoonists in the east.

In last Sunday's Post was a page feature concerning the work of Hungerford and telling how he originated his cartoons dealing with the pranks of children. Besides some of the cartoons there was a good picture of Hungerford. Some of the papers with the Hungerford feature have been received by his friends here. The article concerning Hungerford in part is as follows:

One day Snoodles happened. He wasn't born. He wasn't found. He didn't "just grow," like Topsy. Cyrus C. Hungerford says he happened and "Cy" has inside information. He is Snoodles' papa, cartoonfully speaking.

Snoodles' happening caused a ripple of laughter. Wherever The Sun rustled its pages, there was a circle of new smiles. Youngsters hailed him as a kindred spirit. For Snoodles is the youngster of youngsters—a host of them rolled into one. Grownups took him unto themselves with glee. They knew Snoodles. "One of him" ran about their home every day. But they couldn't understand how Hungerford knew all his "eatest" tricks.

Snoodles is of Pittsburgh. Snoodles has the Pittsburgh "go." Snoodles has the Pittsburgh industry—when it comes to bringing about the discomfiture of "poppy." Pittsburgh "Poppies" and "mommies" knew he was storming the comic world before the rest of the country.

But Pittsburgh couldn't keep Snoodles to itself. Snoodles wouldn't have it so. He sent out the smiling wireless and marched mischievously into the hearts of thousands. Everywhere—all over the United States—the droll little conqueror from Pittsburgh was welcomed. Everywhere, his friends joined with Pittsburgh in "egging him on" to do his worst—which means his funniest and his best.

Like all youngsters that everyone knows, Snoodles likes the attention he receives from his little friends and his big ones, if one may believe Hungerford. Every day, when he creeps out of the end of the cartoonist's pen, he has a new diabolical idea for the creation of havoc. He knows what his audience expects of him, and even the cherubic Kid Addison, his baby brother, is not immune from his designs. He never was backward—not Snoodles

AWAKENING TO CAMPAIGN HERE

With Election Past, People Realize
Merits of "Trade-at-Home"
Project Just Started.

DINNER HERE NOVEMBER 17

Few People Stop to Consider What
Trading Away From Home
Has Done to Indiana.

With the election past, the people of Indiana are just awakening to the merits of the "Trade-at-Home" campaign of the Indiana Retail Merchants association which has been taken up by the retail merchants division of the Rush County Chamber of Commerce, says a statement issued by the Chamber of Commerce today.

According to word received today from A. W. McKeand, organizer for the state association, to date forty cities and towns in Indiana have signified their intentions of falling in line with the movement.

The retail merchants division of the Chamber of Commerce has appointed committees to carry out the plans of the Indiana organization for a "Trade-at-Home" dinner here Tuesday evening, November 17. The day will be celebrated simultaneously all over Indiana as "Trade-at-Home" day.

Fifty-seven Indiana counties lost population in the last census period. Many more barely held their own. Only ten counties in the state made an increase of over five thousand in population. These five counties gained 215,000 inhabitants while the total gain in the state was only 284,414.

The business life of the state and the stability of its taxable values depend on the smaller towns and counties being kept in a prosperous condition.

Not many people ever considered the necessity of trading at home from this standpoint. Experienced retailers and business men declare that on an average of $25 is sent away by every resident of a given community, money that should have been kept at home and circulated in local channels if the persons who bought away from home could have appreciated the irreparable injury they did to their community.

But here's the astonishing fact. The average population of Indiana counties is 30,000. Thus the average county sends away $750,000 every year and it never comes back except in merchandise that should have been purchased right at home.

Suppose the average gross profits on this business was thirty-three and a third cents. That county, then, has lost a profit of $250,000 a year. In ten years it has lost $2,500,000. This gross profit goes to pay for salaries, labor, rent, taxes for the upkeep of the general community etc. It is little wonder that Indiana has lost in population. She now has 2,700,000 souls. What is its loss as a state every year?

Ira Lambert of Cincinnati, Ohio, who will fill the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening, will also address a men's meeting to be held at the church in the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, to which not only the men of the church and congregation but all the men of this city and vicinity are cordially invited.

She Would Hold it When Prin-

THE GERMANS CAPITULATE

(By United Press.)
Tokio, Nov. 7.—All doubt of the future of the German concession of Kiao Chau if the allied cause triumphs was set at rest today. Following the official announcement of the capitulation by the Germans of the fortified city of Tsing Tau, the chief position in the concession, the vice-minister of the Japanese navy said:

"For the present Japan must administer the concession. When peace in Europe is declared then Japan will take up with China the transfer of the concession back of her."

This statement was interpreted as definitely disposing of the rumor that Japan, because it has cost her not less than 3,000 men, three torpedo destroyers and one old cruiser, would demand that China give her title to the captured territory.

MIND MADE UP IN 1912, OH YES

(By United Press.)
New York, Nov. 7.—Willis H. Hotchkiss, chief lieutenant of Col. Roosevelt today declared that Col. Roosevelt will not be a candidate for the presidency two years hence. Hotchkiss insisted that the result of last Tuesday's election when the progressive party was badly man-handled by the voters had nothing to do with the colonel's decision. He insisted that the colonel decided after his defeat in 1912 never again to become a candidate for the presidency.

BOYD'S CATTLE IN QUARANTINE

Eight Head of Jerseys From His Prize Herd Are Held in Chicago
Because of Disease.

THEY ARE NOT INFECTED YET

Stock Raisers and Dealers in County Are Interested in Effort to Stamp Out Disease.

Eight head of John F. Boyd's prize jersey cattle are in quarantine in Chicago because of the discovery of the foot and mouth disease in Chicago last Sunday. The cattle which had been shown at the national dairy show in Chicago were all detained in Chicago by the quarantine. Mr. Boyd has a man in Chicago looking after the cattle. The last word he received the cattle had not yet shown any symptoms of the infectious disease which is attacking like stock in many states.

Mr. Boyd was fortunate in that the quarantine did not fall until after he had held his sale in Chicago. The sale took place a week ago last Thursday during the national show and he disposed of a part of his prize herd. The show did not end until last Saturday and then came the quarantine Sunday before any of the prize stock could be removed.

Stock raisers and dealers in this county are very much interested in the quarantine orders issued from the United States department of agriculture in an effort to stamp out the disease. The quarantine is in effect in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, Iowa, Massachusetts and several other states. In the affected area strict orders against the immediate shipment of cattle, hogs or sheep are being enforced.

Railroad companies operating in the affected districts have been notified by the department of agriculture that they must not transport cattle and hogs from one state to another although in Indiana no steps have been taken to prevent the intra state shipment of stock. At this time any horses and poultry can be carried in railroad cars from one state to another. The disease is contagious and spreads rapidly, which caused the department to issue such strict orders.

Cattle which were enroute at the time the quarantine orders were issued were permitted to be delivered but further shipment has been absolutely stopped outside the state. As much of the stock purchased in this city is sold to dealers in Cincinnati and Louisville, the quarantine is watched with interest and while it is in force the shipments will likely be made to the Indianapolis stock yards.

ONE OUT OF SIX IS DEFECTIVE

Physical Examination of Freshman Class at Indiana Shows This Ratio Among Boys.

CONSIDERED DEPLORABLE

Hoosier Girl to be Better Developed Than Boy Except From Flat Feet.

(By United Press.)
Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 7.—One out of every six men in the Freshman class at Indiana University this year is physically defective. This fact was brought out today in a report made by Dr. J. E. P. Holland, University physician, who has just completed the semi-annual examination of the first year men.

Dr. Holland after making liberal allowances in favor of the men examined said that it must be admitted that out of every six only five could be termed as able-bodied men. No one was classed below normal for such minor defects as weak eyes, bad teeth, and the like, but only on such serious defects as flatness of the chest, curvature of the spine, and heart or lung trouble.

The figures according to Dr. Holland would not be surprising if those examined were the products of the sweat shop, the mint or the factory. But practically all come from the homes of the middle or well-to-do class, and have spent the past four years of their lives in Indiana's modern well-lighted and well-ventilated high schools.

The explanation for this deplorable condition, says Dr. Holland, is to be found in "pure, unadulterated, downright criminal negligence." While he does not approve of cigarettes, the University physician does not ascribe it to smoking.

Among the girls the percentage of physically defective was found to be less, showing that the Hoosier girl is being better developed than the boy. The most serious defect among the girls, also very noticeable among the men, is flat feet. The cause given for this is the rapid change from the shoe with the high heel to shoes with no heel.

The report shows that the best man weighs only 120 pounds, is 5 feet 6½ inches tall, has good heart, lungs, eyes, ears, nose, teeth, skin, and figure.

BOIL THE MILK WARNING TODAY

Chicago Medical Society Say Foot and Mouth Disease is Communicable to Humans

AS PRECAUTIONARY MEASURE

Meat Prices Began Mounting Higher in Chicago With Closing of Stock Yards Today

(By United Press.)
Chicago, Nov. 7.—"Boil the milk," was the warning sounded to all milk users in the ten states now under quarantine because of the "foot and mouth disease" by the Chicago Medical Society today.

"The unprecedented spread of the foot and mouth disease impels the use of all precautions in the use of milk," said the medical society in a bulletin. "We have resolved to warn all users of milk to boil all milk used! even though the food value is lost thereby, until all danger from the disease is stamped out."

George B. Young, city health commissioner, declared today that the disease is communicable to human beings through the use not only of milk but butter and cheese from infected cows. Particularly he warned against giving milk to children and babies without boiling it as a precautionary measure.

Meat prices began mounting higher today, following the closing of the Chicago Stock Yards and several smaller stockyards over the country in an effort to stamp out the "foot and mouth" disease.

Big Chicago packers issued formal statements to the public when the closing orders was first issued, declaring that the price of meats would not be affected. But reports from New York, Boston, Des Moines and several other cities today declared that the expected price increase already has gone into effect.

Chicago retail meat men early today had not advanced their meat prices, though provision futures jumped higher on the Chicago Board of Trade before the closing yesterday. Poultry prices, however, were advanced 1½ to 2½ cents today and eggs went 1 to 2 cents higher per dozen. It was reported that speculation is gambling on an increased demand for poultry and eggs because of higher beef prices, though commission men declared the unexpected advance in eggs and poultry due to "natural causes."

One thousand men were sent into the Chicago stockyards at daybreak today to carry out the government orders for a thorough fumigation.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, November 9, 10 and 11, Mr. Fiske O'Hara, a famous Irish tenor, will play his annual engagement at English's Opera House, Indianapolis. Mr. O'Hara has been provided this season with a new vehicle which gives him ample opportunity for the display of his talent as an actor, but, of course, the particular appeal in his performances is his rendition of the old Irish melodies. No other singer of Irish songs is able to reach the hearts of his countrymen as is Mr. O'Hara and this fact makes his engagements the event of the season to lovers of this particular kind of attraction. Mr. Piten, his manager, has surrounded this star with an unusually clever company, and given his place an elaborate setting both in the way of scenery and costumes. The scenes, of course, are laid in Ireland and the piece is brimful of comedy and romance.

Causes Dissention.

The Democrats are more convinced than ever that the Progressive party was the best friend they ever had. They regret exceedingly now that they delayed so much their outward expressions of appreciation. But there was one outward expression of appreciation in Rush county by the Democrats which was a dismal failure; the kindly stepping aside in Rushville and Ripley townships to allow the Progressive township tickets full sway against the Republicans. The Democratic leaders who arranged such a "working agreement" now insist that it was nothing more than a matter of "courtesy." Let them call it what they will, it was an effort to thwart the will of the voters of the Democratic party and that one thing alone has caused more dissention in the Democratic party in Rush county than any other thing in years. It may have taught the Democrats a lesson. The rank and file never did think much of such an alliance and they expressed their disapprovals at the polls.

The Muncie Press opines that Albert J. Beveridge spread the "foot and mouth" disease throughout Indiana. But Albert has "skinned" off to Atlantic City so as to escape it. The Logansport Pharos is an ardent democratic paper but candid enough to acknowledge that the democratic party is indebted to Beveridge for the result in this state. The Pharos says: "The republicans of Indiana made wonderful gains, due to the fact that they had a splendid organization and that thousands of those who voted the progressive ticket two years ago returned to the Republicans. Mr. Beveridge made a strong campaign and his vote saved Senator Shively from defeat as well as the state ticket."

Pertinent to the election of last Tuesday is the comment of the Connersville News: One of the first results of the direct vote for United States Senators was the re-election of Boise Penrose, a man most bitterly denounced by his political enemies, and a representative of the type of men that the advocates of the direct voting law said it would drive out of the councils of the nation. But a majority or a large plurality of the people of the great State of Pennsylvania has decided in his favor. They ought to know Mr. Penrose better than people of other States, even better than his accusers. They certainly had the right to make whatever choice they wished and under the present law Penrose's election can not be laid to political manipulation.

++++++
What Our Neighbors
Are Talking About
++++++
(Muncie Press.)

Returns from the towns and cities of Indiana showed so tremendous a republican drift that republicans believed before the rural precincts began to be heard from that the state had gone republican all along the line. But the country districts showed a much less pronounced republican all along the line. But the country districts showed a much less pronounced republican drift, and a smaller percentage of progressive loss. This was due partly to the fact that the rural population is dependent more upon the newspaper than upon word of mouth for its information as to the status of political affairs. Most of the metropolitan newspapers circulating in Indiana were hostile to the republican cause, and grossly misrepresented the situation. A more important factor in the situation was the fact that the depression which has followed the new freedom has hit the industrial foodstuffs incident to the European war has given the farmer a prosperity that will last so long as the war lasts. It is apparent, however, that whenever the American farmer has to depend on the American home market for an outlet for his foodstuffs he will begin better to appreciate the results of a tariff policy which strikes down American industry, and at the same time introduces foreign competition in agricultural commodities. A cessation of the war would result in such a drop in the price of foodstuffs that the new freedom would be as unpopular in the country as in the city, because the purchasing power of the American people has been tremendously reduced by the unemployment of three million men.

The tremendous republican gains throughout the country, involving a stinging rebuke to the business-baiting policies of the present national administration, will undoubtedly have a salutary effect upon trade and industry, by pointing to the prospects of better days for American industry. It is evident that but for the war in Europe scarcely a democratic congressman would have been elected north of the Ohio. The war provided the democratic politicians with an alibi as calamity makers in the industrial centers, and by boosting the price of farm products it warded off the resentment of the farmers. It provided also an effective "rally 'round the flag" battle cry for the national administration. But when the war stops the party in power must meet the consequences of its mistaken economic policies.

TOURNAMENT WILL NOT BE OPEN TO ALL

Only Winners From Various Districts Will be Eligible to Enter at Bloomington.

TOO MANY GAMES OLD WAY

(By United Press.)
Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 7.—According to the plans of the Indiana High School Athletic Association this year's state high school basketball tournament will not be open to any team in the state but only to winners in the various districts of which there will be at least twenty-five. These plans were ratified today by the Boosters Club of Indiana University, under whose auspices the tournament is held.

In addition to ratifying the plans of the Athletic Association the Boosters Club set the date for the tournament as Friday and Saturday March 11 and 12.

Last year with seventy-five entries in the tournament the problem of entertaining the teams and their rooters were enormous. The real objection however to the old plan of the open tournament was the terrific physical strain to which the runners-up in the state championship race were subjected. According to the old plan the two teams that ready played six or seven games in the two days, a strain that is too hard for any high school athlete.

In order to get around this difficulty the plan that will be used will be to divide the state into districts, probably about twenty-five, and the winners of the district tournaments will meet here in the state contest.

THE CHARM OF MOTHERHOOD

Enhanced By Perfect Physical Health.

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

TEAMS ENTER HOME STRETCH

Last Lap on For Football Championship With One Elimination Contest Scheduled Today

I. C. A. L. RACE HAS BEEN CLOSE

If Depauw Beats Butler Today Then it Will be Between Methodists

And Wabash

BY TOAD ELLIS
(Written for United Press.)

Indianapolis, Nov. 7.—Secondary college football teams in Indiana were just turning into the home stretch in the race for the title today. The elimination of one of the 3 schools as yet unbeaten by a secondary team appeared practically certain, but Butler and Depauw meet this afternoon at Greencastle. The race will end next Monday when Wabash meets Depauw. If Depauw is victorious today, as it probably will be, then the clash next Monday will be for the title with no chance for a contest from another school.

Depauw is without doubt the logical winner today. There is, however, the chance of an unusual show of form from Butler that may tie the game or even win it, but this is unlikely, despite Butler's rep for this eleventh hour stuff. Considering Indiana secondary schools only, Depauw's victories have been decisive while Butler's have been by the narrowest margin. Depauw beat Earlham 17 to 6. Butler beat Earlham 7 to 6. Butler beat Hanover 17 to 16.

in anybody's game, while Depauw won from Franklin 12 to 7 and from Rose 20 to 0.

The Methodists have, however, shown a disposition to hang back until their nifty captain enters the game with his supply of pep. A little laxity at the start might be fatal in this game, for Butler will start with a rush and probably will uncork something good unless Coach Thomas has lost his code book. Depauw's well known habit of over confidence is another danger, but the Methodists hardly will take chances of that sort today with so much at stake.

The games involving Indiana schools follow:

Notre Dame vs Army at West Point.

Purdue vs Kentucky at Lafayette.

Indiana vs Ohio State at Indianapolis.

Wabash vs Northwestern College at Crawfordsville.

Earlham vs Rose at Terre Haute.

Depauw vs Butler at Greencastle.

Franklin vs Hanover at Hanover.

Other Indiana I. C. A. L. schools either go out of the state or meet each other in games of local interest only. For example, Earlham and Rose meet to decide the cellar championship. Maybe kind fate will declare the game a draw. Neither team has won a game this season. The latest dope seemed to favor Earlham, which has been coming up (witness the good fight last Saturday against Depauw.) Rose has more cripples, and the Earlham coeds are pulling for at least one victory, while there aren't any coeds at Rose.

Franklin probably will win from Hanover. A victory by any decisive score for Franklin would place them ahead of Butler, unless the Irving-tonions spill the dope at Greencastle today.

Wabash will take no chances in the Northwestern college game today, and probably will save the valuable men for the Depauw game next Monday.

RUSHVILLE BEATS MILROY, 20 TO 14

High School Wins Initial Basketball game of the Season on Floor Here Friday Night.

GOES TO MILROY NEXT FRIDAY

The Rushville high school basketball team won the initial game of the season last night, defeating the Milroy high school, 20 to 14. The local five hopes to repeat next Friday night when they will journey to Milroy and play the same team.

Stoops, the Rushville forward, was easily the star of the game. He threw more field goals than any other player. Rushville put up a good defensive game else Milroy would probably have had the long end of the score. Rushville led off and maintained the lead until well into the middle of the game when Milroy tied it up. Then Rushville came back strong and forged ahead, never to be headed again. The Milroy high school beat Rushville regularly last season and the victory last night was sweet revenge for the local bunch.

Rushville lined up with Stoops and Tittsworth as forwards, Martin at center and Brecheisen and Winslow at guard. No substitutes were used by Rushville.

DOPE IS FOR OHIO TO BEAT INDIANA

Buckeyes Held Wisconsin 7 to 6 and Believe I. U. Will be Easy—Students Storm Capitol

HOOSIERS SHOW COME BACK

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Nov. 7.—Thousands of university students stormed this city today, here to witness the Ohio State-Indiana game. Word from Ohio had it that the Buckeyes expected to win easily, but it was believed these dopists had overlooked the decisive victory last Saturday of Indiana over Miami, one of the strong Ohio schools. Indiana students believed the state University had a fine chance to cop the game. The Hoosiers have shown a spirit of comeback that has won high praise. First Northwestern and then Miami fell before the Bloomington boys on their return trip to glory, and there are nothing but kind words for Childs and his methods.

Ohio has not won a conference game this year, while Indiana downed Northwestern decisively. Ohio backers were fortified, however, by the showing against Wisconsin, when the Badgers won 7 to 6. This was given added value when Wisconsin held Chicago to a scoreless tie last Saturday. Dope of the conference elevens favored Ohio State today.

RUSHVILLE PLAYS AT SHELBYVILLE

Great Game Expected There Tomorrow When Fast Independent Teams Meet For First Time.

DOPE FAVORS KAPPAS TO WIN

The Rushville football team faces one of the hardest games of the season Sunday afternoon when the team plays the fast Shelbyville team at Shelbyville. The Shelbyville Independent team, has been playing a great game and the two teams are believed to be evenly matched. The Shelbyville team defeated the Mickey team of Indianapolis by a score of 52 to 0 and Rushville defeated this same team by a score of 76 to 0. On comparative scores the dope favors Rushville but dope is easily upset and the local team will have to play hard to win.

Rivalry has always existed between the two teams and Rushville will attempt to win by a decisive score. The Rushville team held its final practice last night and all the players are in good condition for the game. A number of rooters will accompany the team.

QUAIL SEASON WILL OPEN NOV. 10

Sportsmen Will Have Only Until December 20, However, When Time For Shooting Comes.

OTHER OPEN SEASONS HERE

Hunters and farmers are the two classes of citizens most deeply interested in the game laws of Indiana, and each season many inquiries are made as to the closed season for certain kinds of game.

The closed season on rabbits is from the 10th of January until the 1st of April. They can be taken any other time, but the use of a ferret is prohibited. Closed season on squirrels is from the 1st of November until the 1st day of July of the succeeding year. Closed season on quail is from the 20th day of December until the 10th day of November of the succeeding year. Closed season on mink, opossum, skunk, raccoon and muskrat is from the first day of April until the first day of November. Water fowl are protected by Federal statute and the closed season is from the 15th day of December until the succeeding year, provided wood duck can not be killed or taken at any time.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

Look years younger! Use the old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and nobody will know.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

MAN'S IDENTITY IS NOT LEARNED

Stranger Found Dead Along Road
Near Sandusky Will be Buried
as an Unknown

MYSTERY SURROUNDS HIM

Tracing of Bank Book Found in His Possession Reveals Nothing Concerning His Name.

The identity of a man found dead on the road north of Sandusky late Thursday afternoon has not been established, and it is likely that he will be buried without his name being learned. The body was found by Ethie Waybright, driver of a school hack, lying at the side of the road. He had been dead for some time when found and all efforts to learn his name have failed.

The unknown man was seen in Sandusky earlier in the day. He was looking for employment at the time and left, going north out of the town. Death is believed to have resulted from heart disease. The man was possibly forty-five or fifty years old, five feet tall, weighed about 140 pounds, had light brown eyes and hair just beginning to turn gray.

The body was removed to Greensburg where the officials are making an effort to learn his identity and notify his relatives. There was nothing in the contents of the clothing to give the authorities a clue to work on except a pass book on the Merchants' National bank of Indianapolis, and after investigating this the officers failed to learn who the man was. The bank book bore the name of Ariana H. Bennett, and contained the penciled figures "Main 3490." This number in Indianapolis was called and it was learned that the book was the property of the wife of H. W. Bennett, former postmaster of Indianapolis.

Mr. Bennett stated that his wife had lost the book some time ago and it is supposed that the man found the book and in this manner had it in his possession. Mr. Bennett did not know anyone answering the description of the dead man.

The unknown man had a cut on the right side of his head but this is believed to have resulted when he fell. The stranger stopped at the McDonald store in Sandusky and asked to be directed to the Jacob Standiford place, stating that he believed he would find work there. While there he appeared to be in good health and his death is believed to have been very sudden. He had almost reached the Standiford farm when overcome.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache is a sign you have been eating too much meat, which forms uric acid.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

AN ADJOURNED SESSION IS HELD

City Treasurer Stech is Instructed by Council to Notify Water
Patrons of New Order.

METERS MUST BE IN BY DEC. 1

Two Hundred and Fifty Yet to be Installed—Revenue Decreased
But Supply Greater.

The city council met in adjourned session last night to complete the night when the council took an early adjournment to receive the election returns. There was not much of importance outside the routine business.

City Treasurer Stech was instructed to notify all water consumers who have not yet installed their water meters, to make the necessary deposits for the meters by December 1. There are some who have so far failed or refused to put up the money for a meter and as the city is likely to hear from the public service commission regarding the rise in rates almost any time now it was thought best to put a time limit on the meter business! Patrons are expected to pay the amount due at the flat rate up to December 1 or the water will be turned off at that date.

According to Superintendent Mahin 250 meters are yet to be installed. It was the opinion of the council that the longer the people put it off the more difficult it would be for the council to make the people install the meters. According to the council, the people have had time enough to put in the meters and as the city is determined that all shall use meters the order was made effective December 1. According to Superintendent Mahin, the effect of the meters has already been noticed by the city. While the revenue has been almost cut in half by the meter system, the city has an increased supply of water and about one car of coal a week less is used.

The preliminary assessment roll for the sidewalk improvement in East Ninth street was approved. The preliminary assessment roll for the North Oliver and West Eighth street improvements were also approved. The time for hearing remonstrances on all three of the improvements was set for the first meeting in December which happens to be December 1.

W. H. Master, of the DeGolyer Construction company, appeared before the council and wanted an early settlement for the improvement of South Perkins and East First streets. The assessment roll was approved by the council on September 22 but for some unknown reason the necessary notices were not sent to the property owners and as a result the money for the paving has never been collected. Mr. Masters asked the council to see that it was collected as soon as possible as the time for doing so had expired long ago and that he was losing money every day he did not receive his money. The matter will be pushed by the council as the mistake was unintentional on the part of the city.

Notice to Property Owners

LEADERS TOOK LAYOFF TODAY

Wisconsin, Chicago and Illinois Resting Before Important Games of Next Saturday

EACH HAS CHANCE AT TITLE

Only Two Games on Conference Schedule, Indiana Playing Ohio and Iowa Northwest, n

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 7.—Wisconsin, Chicago, and Illinois, battlers for the western conference football title, each took a rest today before the important struggles next Saturday that should eliminate at least one of the trio from championship claims.

Only two games were on the conference schedule for this afternoon. Indiana and Ohio met at Indianapolis to determine which school should light in the next-to-cellar position in the conference race just above Northwestern. Northwestern was doped to add another to her string of brilliant defeats by bowing before Iowa at Evanston.

All week the Badgers, Maroon and Illini coaches have been driving their eleven through hard scrimmage with the games of next Saturday in view. Efforts were being made to round all cripples into form and to develop the newest forward passing to perfection. If the two weeks' layoff has the desired effect, the greatest battles in the west this year will be seen next Saturday when Wisconsin meets Minnesota and Chicago faces the Illini.

The Badgers must defeat the Gophers to stay in the title fight. Illini having whipped the northerners in last Saturday's battle. If they accomplish this stunt and the

Advance of Modern Infantry Vividly Described by Soldier

BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS

Paris, Oct. 12 (By mail to New York).—A modern infantry advance under heavy fire is graphically described by a wounded French soldier just back from the firing line.

"We advanced," he said "by successive bounds. It was very funny. We are rather scattered about in little groups of five or six. We consult one another.

"Are you there?"

"Yes—"

"Come along then—"

"So we rush along for a hundred yards without looking at anything: our knapsacks in our hands in front of our face like a shield. When we get out of breath we fling ourselves down flat in the mud. We hold a muster of our force and on the right and left we see parties of the company. Everybody climbed at the same time. Everything has gone well. We hide behind trees to watch for a favorable moment for a fresh advance.

"Bullets are whistling, but they pass well above our heads. The Germans are too near us on the other side of the hills and they cannot touch us. Besides they fire so badly. They do not raise their rifles to their shoulders, but fire from the hip without aiming.

"We are right at the top now, and we keep looking to the right and left to make sure that we have not got ahead of our comrades. A few moments' rest and its time for us to dash forward. One of us, a private, lifts his rifle up in the air. Everybody understands. At the same time we all show the point of our bayonets over the ridge. They gleam, though there is no sun.

"We rush forward shouting. This time they are in front of us. It is where we are. We do not see our comrades who are falling at our side. We only see those grey tunics, those spiked helmets, which are falling back. However, they do not turn their backs on us, but how badly they fire. All at once shells begin to arrive. They have got our range. We cannot hold out any longer. So without turning our backs either, and continuing to fire, we withdraw, all the time helping the wounded to come with us. We form again on the other side of the ridge, but above on the top our places are taken by another force a kilometer nearer the enemy than we were. (This refers to the French system of advancing the firing line by relays, the movement being minutely regulated by the central intelligence section.)

"It is a marvel to see the suppressions of these masses which succeed each other without cessation, without disorder. The heaviest fighting leaves us masters of an intact force. The flesh of our army again under the very blow that tears it, and the enemy may strike all he can but he cannot weaken our grasp which is already beginning to crush it."

Here's an Imperial program which has had to be modified, if not altogether abandoned. It was prepared by the Kaiser, according to reliable information, and containing the following plans for his stay in Paris between August 15-20.

Capture of President Poincare, the Ministry, the British and Russian Ambassadors, the directors of the banks and the presidents of the Chamber and the Senate.

An embargo on the Bank of France.

The detention of numerous political and financial personalities and of writers hostile to Germany, of whom the German Embassy had prepared a list before mobilization.

The confiscation of the Public Debt Government stock-holders to accede Register, so as to compel French to all exactions and to demand peace.

Once Paris had been occupied, an army of 600,000 reservists would, in the German estimation, have sufficed to maintain order south and north, while twenty-five first line German corps would have marched against the Russians.

MEXICO HAS A NEW PRESIDENT

With Swearing in Today of General Eulalio Gutsierrez, Country Sets a New Record

GEN. CARRANZA IS AN EXILE

He is Expected to Resign And go to Vera Cruz—Removal of Troops a Big Problem

(By United Press.)

Washington, Nov. 7.—Three presidents in less than six months is the record of Mexico today. With the swearing in today of General Eulalio Gutsierrez by the Aguas Calientes peace conference, Carranza, once the provisional president and successor of General Huerta, is practically made an exile.

The latest reports here say he has departed from his temporary capital of Puebla to Soledad in the state of Vera Cruz, and within the shadow of the American army. Another report says Huerta has offered him a "comfortable home abroad."

Agents of the state department if they have not already received instructions will probably be asked to negotiate with the new president to insure the safety of foreigners at Vera Cruz, when the American troops leave and to make satisfactory agreement with respect to the large collection of duties by General Funston at that port.

The removal of the American troops is still one of the big problems and no action will be taken until assurances are given by the new administration that property and life will be respected.

Carranza is expected to resign and go to Vera Cruz, according to latest advices here. Since it has been impossible for him to carry the Aguas Calientes conference he has been moving his capital gradually toward Vera Cruz. The convention has fixed November 10 as the day for Carranza's retirement. Carranza is reported to be working for the retirement of General Villa.

LOCKJAW EPIDEMIC MAKES APPEARANCE

Allies are Buying Large Quantities of Tetanus Serum to Stop its Ravages.

ATTACKS THE CAVALRYMEN

(By United Press.)

Washington, Nov. 7.—An epidemic among the battling armies of Europe, of lockjaw has made its appearance. Surgeon General Blue of the United States public health service said today. The allies are buying large quantities of tetanus serum to stop its ravages.

The disease has attacked the cavalry particularly, Dr. Blue said. This is because horses are peculiarly susceptible to the disease and carry it, he explained. "A few years ago it would have been almost impossible to stop such an epidemic," Dr. Blue said, "but fortunately with the serum which is being purchased in large quantities it will be possible to check and confine it very successfully."

CARELESSNESS OF SMOKER IS CAUSE

One-Third of Stock Yards at Kansas City Swept By Fire Firday Night Late

LOSS QUARTER OF A MILLION

(By United Press.)

Kansas City, Nov. 7.—A quarter of a million dollars loss was the estimate today of the damage done by a fire which swept one-third of the stockyards here during the night. A smoker's carelessness is believed to have been the cause. A fortunate shift of wind at midnight aided the firemen materially.

Unusually heavy shipments of stock are expected here because of the quarantine on the Chicago stockyards and the fire will make handling of these shipments difficult.

* War Makes as Strange Bed- *
* Fellows as Politics *
*****

(By United Press.)

London, Oct. 26. (By mail to New York)—War makes just as strange bedfellows as politics. Two of Winston Churchill's most hated enemies have now become his fastest friends.

Churchill's quarrel with Admiral Lord Charles Beresford has become historic. On one occasion Churchill said of him: "The noble lord is one of those speakers of whom it might be said that, when he rises to speak he doesn't know what he is going to say; while speaking he doesn't know what he is saying, and when he sits down he doesn't know what he has said." Now they are often seen in the street together, walking arm in arm.

When Kitchener was leading his army against the Kalifa in Sudan he placed a strict censorship over the correspondents. Churchill was one of them. After the slaughter at Omdurman when Kitchener ordered the tomb of the Mahdi to be razed to the ground, Churchill wrote home so strong a protest at the "act of vandalism and desecration" that the matter was taken up in the house of commons. Of course Kitchener was upheld in doing what he regarded as necessary but if Kitchener loved war correspondents little before, he loved them less after that—and especially Churchill.

Churchill re-published his protest in his book entitled "with Kitchener to Khartoum" and there his early challenge still stands. But today the secretary for war and the first lord of the admiralty are comrades.
